Have you ever stormed a party given by assholes and found it extremely amusing to see the disturbed looks on the faces of the (insert here!)? That was nothing!!!
A whole city has explicitly not invited us. There's a party in Hannover and we can't come in???

Punk

OOOOH YES!

Ok. The time is here to put a few things straight. So get out of your damn hole in the ground, your rotten shack, and your boring neighbourhood, to show all those arrogant assholes that they can sweat without having to go to a solarium.

Forget raves, forget TV, forget boredom. Clear the ring for the next round:

From 2 to 4 of August 1996 there are

Chaos - DAYS

in HANNOVER!

GERMANY

There are some parties where you just have to have been.

The last dino-barbecue, the Easter rave of Golgotha, Waterloo, Stalingrad, Nagasaki and now Hannover. Don't miss it!

Since centuries Chaos Days are the most exciting and Chaotic party and apart from that the biggest punk meeting in the world. And this year the mix is going to be more explosive than ever (I'm counting on you...). Already last year punks, skins, gangstas, hools and anarchists mingled to celebrate the ultimate party. 1996 ALL will come (Stop! NO NAZIS!) and the press and the TV will have to puke in anger and sensation-lust, at the biggest criminal meeting of all times.

They don't like the Chaos Days, just as little as the politicians and the police. Since no one has any control over the Chaos-days, no one has any chance to make money with them.

Clean it all out at the big Summer Sale!

Three days of party in the middle of the shopping centre - a real pleasure!

Nobody rules, just chaos: nothing is prepared, so prepare things yourself! Nobody knows what is going to happen, the excitement is unbearable, live reports of RTL and CNN are however in the making. Come as early as possible, possibly even a couple of days before, 'cause the best part of the party is always at the beginning!

Chaos Days: nothing to forbid, nothing to punish!

Chaos Days are no demonstration, and going to Hannover can't be a crime. If they don't let us go into Hannover they will just have to "temporarily arrest" us. HaHa! OK, then we will just have a real cool party in jail. Don't panic! If you didn't break any law no one can punish you! Problems with the police only occur if they catch you in embarrassing situation, or if you start telling them long stories

We won't let any dumb slime-eating social worker, or any flea-ridden greenparty member organize OUR party and ban us to a field outside the city! FUCK OFF!!! The party takes place in the city!

Attention:

Never get off at the main train station.
Avoid ANY contact to the police!
Always keep your distance, even, or better especially, when the cops just casually smile at you and start walking in your direction. They never have good intentions!

The meeting points:

We meet daily at the following places: Lister Platz - Lindener Marktplatz - Weise Kreuz Platz - Lutherkirche - Kuchengarten, as well as the following parks: Georgengarten - Welfengarten - Eilenriede - Glockseewiese - Ricklinger Kiesteiche Am Ihmeufer. If the police is present at those places to disturb our party we will move our party to the following places: NDR-Funkhaus, Militaerfriedhof Linden - Staatskanzlei - Opernhaus - Landtag - Staatstheater - Schauspielhaus - Landeskirchenamt - Landeszentralbank as well as any ministry or rich residential district. All addresses can be found in good maps of the city!

And then SATURDAY 12:00 HIGH NOON!

The meeting of 10.000 thirsty and hungry people in the middle of the city!

Will Penny-Market supply the beer? Will McDonald invite us to a Big Mac?

And will we get new clothing at the summer sale?

There is no question: we will be seeing us in Hannover!

Otherwise it will be like last year when you watched the scenes on TV with open mouth and couldn't believe what you saw!

And if you still don't know why you should go to Hannover and attend the Chao Days, then go to HELL 'cause you aren't invited! Asshole!
